Contents

A detailed illustration of a grand, gothic-style library. The room is filled with tall wooden bookshelves reaching to the ceiling. In the foreground, several students in school uniforms are seated at wooden desks, focused on their books. The atmosphere is magical, with numerous glowing, golden spheres of varying sizes floating in the air, casting a warm, ethereal light. Sunlight streams through large, arched windows in the background, creating a bright and airy feel. The overall scene suggests a place of learning, knowledge, and wonder.

INTRODUCTION

At Buddhist Tai Kwong Chi Hong College, it is our aim to continually foster Whole-Person Development for our students across all content areas of the Seven Learning Goals. In an effort to increase student knowledge and familiarity with these concepts, we strive to provide a myriad of learning experiences for our pupils. Recently we launched enrichment courses focusing on our Junior Level Students (S1-3). These courses included “Fostering Friendship,” a friend-finding experience in a new setting for our recently-joined S1 students, “Shopping Fun,” an authentic shopping experience (S2), and “Virtual Travel Guide,” a virtual exploration of the many beautiful tourist attractions of Japan (S3). Each course took place over multiple days and featured pre-activity and post activity work and reflections. Please feel free to peruse the following pages to view some of our wonderful student work!
